Developing Networks –
Networks For Development

Dear children, teens and parents!

The year 2025 has a special event in store for us: the World Congress on Childhood-onset Disability will be held in Heidelberg from June 25th to 28th! Over 1,500 experts and affected people from all over the world gather in Heidelberg.

Over four days, participants can attend seminars, symposia, specialist lectures, political round tables and practical courses with case studies on the topic of child development disorders. The congress offers the latest scientific findings, multi-professionalism, versatility and excitement.

And you are all invited to this special event with a colorful firework of activities and inspirations! Our “Action Day” on June 28th will take place at the SRH Stephen-Hawking-Schule (SRH Schulen GmbH) in 69151 Neckargemünd and offers many inspiring experiences & adventures!

The day's motto is “Developing Networks - Networks for Development”, so come and take the opportunity to exchange ideas with professionals and those affected, get physically active and learn new things.

We are looking forward to greeting you!

PS: The Action Day can also be attended independently of the World Congress & is free of charge.
